What if I missed a lesson that has already been removed?

If you missed a lesson, simply create a FREE stpaulcenter.com account. For those who create a free account on our site, the lessons won't come down during Lent, so you can watch the lessons as many times as you want until April 16th.

To create your free account, go to stpaulcenter.com/my-account and click 'Create Account.'

If you already have an account with us, go to my.stpaulcenter.com and login with your email and password.

Alternatively, you may login to stpaulcenter.com and click on “My Videos” in the upper menu. You can access all the videos here throughout Lent.

Do I need the study guide and the book to do the study?

We highly recommend these two companions to get maximum benefit from the study!

With the purchase of the Holy is His Name study guide you get early access to all the lessons of the video study beginning Sunday, February 19th for four months!

The full-color study guide will inspire you with its beautiful imagery and life-changing message. Enter more fully into the study with review notes, reflection questions, memory verses and additional Scripture readings.

By bundling the study guide with the book “Holy is His Name: the Transforming Power of God’s Holiness in Scripture,” you will not only have four months to watch the videos and save $7.90, but you can have the book in hand within days of your order to begin grounding yourself in the study.

What if I cannot do the study during this limited-time period?

The Free Lenten streaming is a limited-time promotion. We recommend the purchase of the study guide to access the video study for four months. The four months begin from date of purchase but not before February 19th.

If I want to host a group study, what is the recommended session agenda?
